

Title hopes look slim

AFTER their disappointing 1-1 draw against Dulwich Hamlet on Tuesday night — their third in four matches — Wycombe Wanderers will be hoping for a better result when they take on Barking at Loakes Park tomorrow (Saturday).

Currently trailing leaders Enfield by 10 points, Wanderers can't afford to lose or draw another game this season — they must win them all and hope Enfield drop a few points on their run-in. Tomorrow, Enfield have a difficult game at home to Leatherhead, who have won once at Southbury Road already this season in the London Senior Cup, while Dagenham are at home to Walthamstow Avenue.

At present, Wycombe's chances of keeping the title look bleak. But if Enfield can lose at Woking as they did last week, then anything could happen.

If Wanderers can take their chances, something they couldn't do against Dulwich, they should have few problems with Barking. The Essex club are in the lower regions of the table and crashed 2-0 to Woking on Tuesday. Although they have returned some good results this season, including a double over Slough, they have failed to find any consistency.

Recent midfield signing Gordon Ferry should play but ex-Chelsea man Joe Fascione misses the game as he has been placed on the transfer list by mutual agreement. Top goalscorer is Peter Burton with 26.

Wanderers will be hoping to have Tony Horseman back in the ranks after missing

Tuesday's game. Without him, the attack looked unbalanced and his coolness was greatly missed against Dulwich. "Bodger," top goalscorer with 29 this season, injured his leg at Bromley.
